

we the people of wisconsin do not want any change to our NO CALL list. Some of us spend all day on the phones at work and do not want to come home to more Unwanted business services at night. As I see it this is just another way of weakening the strength of the American people.